AWARDS JUDGE

Robert Hebenstreit

The recipient of many awards throughout his career, Robert Hebenstreit is a nationally known artist from Cincinnati, Ohio. At the age of twelve he was a student of William E. Gebhardt School of Art, Cincinnati, OH. He studied under Bill Leonard, first Dir. of the Contemporary Art Center, Joe Peter, CEO of his industrial design firm, and Richard Miller, Cincinnati sculptor and painter. He studied in Spain, dedicating himself to painting landscapes. Today he teaches at the Baker Hunt Art and Cultural Center, Covington, KY and Evendale Cultural Arts Center, emphasizing the study of the figure, still life, and landscapes. He writes or paints nearly every day and has his work published in national art magazines and collected by many. He is a member of the Cincinnati Art Club and has been the editor of the Club's Dragonfly newsletter and Imagine Magazine. He is married to Portrait Artist Carin Hebenstreit, and the father of Sculptor John Hebenstreit and painter Marlena Hebenstreit.
