AWARDS JUDGE

Anita J Taylor

Anita has been a visual artist for fifty years participating in numerous shows across the state and in nearby Midwest regions. She is also retired from teaching art at both the elementary and the high school levels. She is very proud of her art students from over a quarter of a century time span that she has taught. Anita went on to pursue and find success in the art world as she continued to work on her own art, as well as illustrating children's artwork. Currently, her focus has been on illustrating and writing children's stories. In addition, Anita said, "I'm also working on a spiritually focused series of drawings based on biblical topics"
